

Empowering Michigan's Veterans: Essential Knowledge and Resources

Join us for special classes to learn more about the resources available to Michigan veterans through the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency (MVAA). These classes will cover a diverse range of topics, and offer insights into the various services dedicated to the well-being of Michigan veterans.

Classes are free for Michigan residents aged 50 and older.

Classes

- Empowering Military Families: Resources and Support for Aging Service Members on March 6 at 2pm EST
- Michigan's Military Support Network: Organizations Serving Veterans on April 16 at 11am EST

How to Join

Visit:

www.getsetup.io/michigan
and find these classes within the 'Featured Classes' row.

Carol
Michigan Learner

"This is a real game changer. America and American seniors especially have been struggling with this technology and knowing we needed to cross over and not knowing how. It's a patient learning environment. Thanks to the state of Michigan. This is a real gift to the community!"